Website Privacy Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Catherine Wood, Ph.D., LLC ("we," "our," or "the Practice") is committed to protecting your online privacy. This Website Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard the digital information of visitors to our website.

1. Information You Voluntarily Provide

When you use our online contact or inquiry forms, we collect personal information that you intentionally submit, which may include your name, email address, phone number, and brief notes regarding your inquiry.

2. How We Protect and Store Your Information

We take data security seriously. All personal information submitted through our website forms is securely routed and stored directly within a HIPAA-compliant, encrypted Google Workspace environment covered by a formal Business Associate Agreement (BAA). We do not sell, trade, or rent your personal information to third parties, nor do we use it for marketing purposes.

3. Standard Website Analytics and Cookies

Like most modern websites, our hosting platform may use basic cookies and tracking tools to monitor standard, non-identifying traffic patterns (such as page views or browser types) to ensure our website functions correctly and efficiently. You can choose to disable cookies through your individual browser settings at any time.

4. Clinical vs. Digital Privacy

This policy specifically applies to data collected on this website. Once you become an active patient, your clinical data is protected under the federal health privacy guidelines outlined in our separate Notice of Privacy Practices (HIPAA).

5. Contact Information

If you have any questions regarding this website policy, please contact us via email at office@woodphd.com.
